

'concerned Australians' together with the Geelong Inter-Church
Social Justice Network

warmly invite you to the Geelong book launch of

"The Intervention: an Anthology".

To be launched by

Yingiya Mark Guyula, Djambarrpuyngu Nation, Yolngu Nations
Assembly Spokesperson, Independent candidate for the seat of Nhulunbuy at the up-coming Northern Territory election,

With an introduction by

Terry Mason, Institute of Koorie Education, Deakin University, Geelong.

Date: Friday, 11th March, 2016

Time: 2 – 3 pm

Venue: Wesley Centre, 100 Yarra Street, Geelong, 3220

In this historic anthology, award-winning writers Rosie Scott and Dr Anita Heiss have gathered together the work of twenty of Australia's finest writers, both Indigenous and non-Indigenous, together with powerful statements from Northern Territory Elders, to bring a new dimension and urgency to a social justice issue that has struggled to find a place on the national agenda.

This event is also a fundraiser for Yingiya's election campaign.

Please RSVP: March 9th to Pia at info@concernedaustralians.com.au or 0419541733
